48 HOURS A WEEK FOR WOMEN WORKERS

Portland, Oct. 26.—Providing that women may not work for wages more than 48 hours a week, a bill will be introduced at the next session of the Oregon legislature by the Consumers' league. It was announced today following that organization's regular annual meeting. After its introduction members of the league will work for the measure until it comes to a vote.

The act is similar to the law now in force in California, except that it does not limit the hours of labor to eight a day. It is so worded that women may be obliged to work over eight hours five days a week, and get a half holiday on Saturday.

Heston will referee the game."

HEADQUARTERS OF VILLA ESTABLISHED

El Paso, Oct. 26.—Pancho Villa has established headquarters at Santa Ysabel, about 30 miles southwest of the Chihuahua capital, an official bulletin from the Carranzista authorities at Chihuahua City announced today. The bulletin, which was given out at Juarez, denies reports that General Trevino is short of ammunition and is having trouble in getting more from Secretary of War Obregon. Trevino is well supplied with everything," the bulletin stated. "Delay of action against the bandits necessitated by military reasons, as there are far-reaching, encircling movements of forces in the field, converging toward the objective point at Santa Ysabel."

Another official Carranzista announcement today told of small skirmishes yesterday on Hearst's ranch at Babicora, between a marauding band of Villistas and a Carranzista patrol. Four of the bandits, including Major Marrazo and Captain Lopez, were made prisoners, according to the statement, with several killed on both sides.

"FISHERS OF MEN" TABERNACLE TOPIC

"Some people do not believe in revivals, but neither does the devil," said Evangelist Mathis at the tabernacle last night. "Yet I warrant that most of the Christians here took their stand on the side of righteousness while attending revivals."

Mr. Mathis took for his text, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a draught."

"Simon's fishing boat was being used by Christ as a place from which he could speak to the multitude on the shore," explained the speaker. "After He had ceased talking to them, and observing that Simon had caught no fish during the preceding night. He spoke in the words of the text. Simon obeyed, and he brought up the net so full of fish that he was obliged to call to other fishermen for aid. And so it will be in Grants Pass, my friends, if we leave the conventional and easy-going methods of fishing for men along the shore, and launch out into the deep. If the ordinary will not do, let us adopt the extraordinary method."

Mr. Mathis stated that he has experienced many happy events during his life, but the happiest moments of all was when he spoke the words that brought another soul to accept the Saviour. Mr. Mathis is an adept in the use of pertinent metaphors and similitudes, and hesitates never for a moment for the expression that adds force to his utterance. Among the apt phrases of the speaker last night are the following:

"Let us lose sight of denominational lines and pull out into the deep."

"Let God have His way and the nets will be full."

"Almost anyone can fish along the shore, and with almost any old kind of bait, but the chances are they will catch many suckers and bull-heads."

They'd put up even money now with Casey at the bat."

Ten thousand eyes were on him as he rubbed his hands with dirt,
Five thousand tongues applauded as he wiped them on his shirt;
Then while the New York pitcher ground the ball into his hip,
Defiance gleamed in Casey's eye, a sneer curled Casey's lip.

VILLA'S AGENTS CONFER AT EL PASO

El Paso, Oct. 26.—Emissaries from Pancho Villa have been in this city in conference with members of the junta of the new Mexican revolutionary party of legalistas, according to reports of the United States department agents here. At least one Villista is known to have come overland on horseback, crossing the Rio Grande below Juarez.

At this meeting, the United States authorities believe, an agreement has been perfected for the bandit leader to act as commander-in-chief of the field forces under the direction of the junta of the new movement. Several United States secret service men have already reported that such an agreement is now in effect. In return, the legalistas are to furnish money in order that the army can be paid in silver.

The new revolutionary party, in its official newspaper here, El Legalista, avows that the object of its formation is to accomplish the downfall of de facto President Carranza. Some members known to the authorities here are wealthy former land owners in the southern republic, driven out of the country by the new regime and their property confiscated. Some of the members are still wealthy and able to furnish financial backing for the new movement.

Department agents here have under surveillance an American filibuster, formerly with Villa, who is suspected of having taken medical and surgical supplies to Villa lately.

Villa's main forces today are continuing their leisurely retreating movement in the Santa Ysabel district, carrying a great quantity of equipment and supplies, according to incoming natives leaving Chihuahua City yesterday, interviewed by United States government agents today.

Desultory skirmishing between the slowly retreating Villista rear guard and the detachments sent out by General Trevino was in progress late yesterday, but refugees believe the pursuit is but a half-hearted one, the Carranzistas dreading another Villa trap.

Withdrawal from the vicinity of Chihuahua City by Villa is looked upon by United States authorities as part of a strategic plan.

"He realized," said one official, who acted as a military observer during Villa's former campaign, "that the city would be untenable at present. Having captured plenty of supplies, there was no need of another raid, even though Villa had reached the outskirts of the city. So he draws back into his old stamping ground and will force the Carranzistas to come to him in his own stronghold. Another reason is that Villa fears to attempt to hold the city because of the nearness of the Pershing expedition."

Boasts that he could control the entire state of Chihuahua a month after the American expedition leaves have been made by the bandit chief.

BETTING EVEN MONEY ON PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

New York, Oct. 26.—Even money again was the ruling rate on election betting today as western Wilson money came into the field. A Wall street man who recently made a killing in steel was reported today to have bet $25,000 even on Wilson and to have $250,000 more to bet.

Yesterday $100,000 was wagered, forcing the odds from even back to 10 to 9 on Hughes. Tex Rickard did a flourishing business on Ohio bets. He was the go-between in several bets that Ohio would go democratic. One was $10,000 against $5,000; another $25,714.28 against $25,000.

TWO HANDS AND 5,000 PEOPLE GREET BRYAN

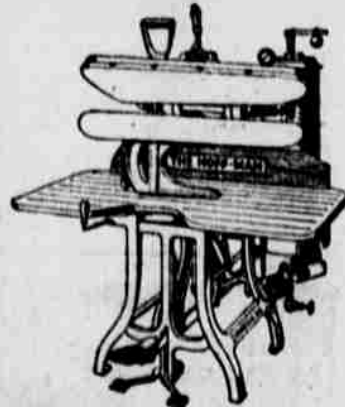

Oshkosh, Wis., Oct. 26.—Two hands and 5,000 people greeted William J. Bryan here last night when he came to urge the re-election of President Wilson. Only 1,600 people could be packed into the opera house for the main address, but Bryan spoke to 1,000 outside the building and several thousand others met him at the train and lined the streets on the way to the opera house.

Bryan speaks today at Appleton and Fond du Lac, and Milwaukee tonight.
